

Domestic Violence Program

Temporary Group Schedule Due to COVID Regulations
Current Group Schedule to Start Week of June 22, 2020

What you need to know:

- 1) You must pre-reserve a spot for the group you want to attend on the morning of the group offered by calling the front desk at 217.428.6616.
- 2) If that group is full, you will be offered a spot in the overflow class.
- 3) Please understand that there is no guarantee that the overflow class times will be offered permanently, and may discontinue when normal operations resume.
- 4) If you show up without a reservation for a group spot, you will have to wait until group starts to see if there are any seats available due to no-shows, and you may be turned away if full.
- 5) Failure to show up for a reserved spot repeatedly may result in you not being allowed to reserve a seat for future groups.

COVID Safety Adjustments for Attendees:

- 1) Location of groups will be in the Dean Simcox Conference Room on the lower level, near the East Entrance. Please park in the lower lot (East Entrance).
- 2) You must be symptom free and fever free to attend.
- 3) Staff will check you in, do a symptom screening, and take your temperature with a touchless forehead thermometer. Fever is considered any over 100.4 degrees.
- 4) You will be required to wear a mask while in the building for the duration of group.
- 5) Seats will be marked and spaced out to comply with social distancing policies as much as is possible in the space.
